

INCITO AWARD NOMINATION FORM

Incito: To inspire, excite, spur, increase, hasten, urge forward.

The Incito Award was established in 2011 to recognize a young person (age 40 or under), who has emerged as a community leader and demonstrates a commitment to volunteerism and philanthropy, leadership with Lenawee Cares, or other organizations in our community.

The Incito Award nominee inspires by example while making our community a better place in which to live and work.

Nominations are due by February 21, 2022.

Nominee Name: _____

1. Describe how this individual exemplifies their commitment to volunteerism, philanthropy, Lenawee Cares, and other organizations in our community.
2. How does this individual lead by example, and encourage other young people to do so?
3. How has this person volunteered in the Lenawee community and with Lenawee Cares?
4. What sets the nominee apart from their peers?
5. What inspires you about the nominee?
6. Please share a brief story about the nominee that demonstrates his/her volunteerism, philanthropy, and leadership.

(Over)

7. Please add any other information that may be helpful.

Please share any additional information or documentation that you believe will provide the selection committee with better knowledge and understanding of the nominee. For example, a resume/vita; letters of support documenting how the nominee meets the award criteria; or information about community volunteer activities. Nominations must be typed.

Name of Nominator: _____ Phone: (day) _____

E-mail: _____ Phone: (eve) _____

Please email the completed nomination form to cynthia@lenaweeccf.com or mail it to:

Lenawee Community Foundation
Attn: Cynthia Heady, Director of Development & External Engagement
1440 W. Maumee St.
Adrian, MI 49221

Questions? Call Lenawee Community Foundation at 517.263.4696 or email Cynthia Heady at cynthia@lenaweeccf.com.

Incito Award Past Recipients

2011	Julie Miller
2012	Doug Gray
2013	Angie Atkin
2014	Allison Ott
2015	Joshua Nieto
2016	Ben Creech
2017	Megan Porter
2018	Mekeisha Black
2019	Dave Herriman
2020	Sara Herriman
2021	Catrina Ossmann